

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

(REGULATIONS)

The 7th December, 1977

No. 882-IFR-II-77/31823.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor of Haryana hereby makes the following rules to amend the Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume I, Part I, in their application to the State of Haryana namely:

1. These Rules may be called the Punjab Civil Services Rules Volume I, Part I (Haryana=Seventh Amendment) Rules, 1977.
2. In the Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume I, Part I, for rule 8.122, the following rule shall be substituted and shall be deemed to have been substituted with effect from the 28th May, 1976, namely:

8.122 (1) A government employee on earned leave shall be entitled to leave salary equal to the pay drawn by him immediately before proceeding on leave.

An officer on half pay leave or leave not due is entitled to leave salary equal to half the amount specified in sub-rule (1) subject to a maximum of Rs.750 per mensem.

Provided that this limit shall not apply if the leave is on medical certificate or for pursuing an approved course of study otherwise than on study leave terms.

- (3) An officer on commuted leave is entitled to leave salary equal to the amount admissible under sub-rule (1).
- (4) An officer on extraordinary leave is not entitled to any leave salary.
- (5) In case a Government Employee dies while in service the cash equivalent of the leave salary that the deceased employee would have got had he gone on earned leave that would have been due and admissible to him, but for the death, on the date immediately following the date of the death and in any case, not exceeding leave salary for 120 days, shall be paid to his family subject to reduction on account of pension equivalent of death-cum-retirement gratuity. The cash equivalent of leave salary admissible under this rule shall also carry the appropriate amount of dearness allowance.
- (6) In the case of Government employees governed by Contributory Provident Fund Rules, the Government contribution payable under Contributory Provident Fund Rules is different from death-cum-retirement gratuity payable under pension rules and as such no deduction need be made out of cash equivalent of leave salary payable to the family of a deceased employee on account of Government contribution to Contributory Provident Fund.
- (7) In the case of military pensioner re-employed in Civil Services who dies during the period of re-employment, the cash equivalent of leave salary payable to the family of such employee should also be reduced by pension equivalent of death-cum-retirement gratuity as prescribed in sub-rule (5) above the reduction of such equivalent of leave salary should be on account of pension equivalent of death-cum-retirement gratuity which is due and admissible to him by virtue of his service in the Civil Department. If he is not entitled to any death-cum-retirement gratuity on account of his service in the Civil Department no such reduction need be made.

Note 1.—The leave salary of the Government employee who is reinstated after a period passed under suspension and who proceeds on leave immediately on re-instatement should be determined on the basis of the pay actually drawn by or allowed to him for the day immediately preceding the day of commencement of leave. The leave salary of a Government employee who is allowed to draw pay under rule 4.3. or 4.16 of these rules, should also be determined similarly i.e. on the basis of the pay actually drawn by him immediately before proceeding on leave.

Note 2.—In respect of any period spent on foreign service out of India the pay which the Government employee would have drawn if on duty in India but for foreign service out of India shall be substituted for the pay actually drawn for the purpose of determining the leave salary.

Note 3.—In the case of person to whom the Employee State Insurance Act, 1958, applies, leave salary admissible during leave other than earned leave, shall be reduced by the amount of benefit admissible under the said Act for corresponding period.

Note 4.—(i) The Army/Navy/Air Force reservists employed in the State Government Department, on recall to the colours on mobilisation will be allowed if they so desire, the pecuniary benefit of earned leave to their credit un-to-maximum of 120 days admissible under these rules as under in addition to Army/Navy/Air Force pay and allowance:

- | | |
|---------------------|----------------------|
| (a) for first month | .. Full leave salary |
| (b) there after | .. half leave salary |

The charges on account of this benefit will be payable by the Civil Department concerned direct.

(ii) The pecuniary benefit of the leave will be calculated in terms of full or half monthly pay worked out on the basis of the Civil emoluments which were actually drawn or which would have been drawn but for the reservists being called to the colours on mobilisation immediately before the commencement of leave.
